Upland Skies: Project Development Manager

About the Upland Skies: Birds of Prey in the Peak District and Sheffield Partnership Project

The RSPB, National Trust, Peak District National Park Authority, Sheffield and Rotherham Wildlife Trust and Derbyshire Wildlife Trust have been working in partnership to develop this project to engage the communities of urban Sheffield and those living in and visiting the Peak District National Park with the natural heritage of the Peak District focusing on birds of prey in the Dark Peak. The aim is to create awareness of the importance of these birds to our urban and moorland heritage and empower communities to take action to protect birds of prey across the landscape.

Birds of prey (including hen harriers, peregrines, merlin, goshawk and owls) are highly protected but despite this the populations of birds of prey in the peak district are in trouble. Large scale habitat restoration of blanket bog in the Dark Peak has the potential to help these species but more awareness of their plight and how they can be helped is needed if their fortunes are to be turned around.

The Peak District is a unique National Park being a wild upland space in close proximity to large urban populations including in Sheffield, Manchester, Leeds and Oldham meaning the scope for public engagement in the wider area surrounding the national park is almost limitless.

The development period will enable us to create a 4 year HLF funded project which will deliver an exciting and varied programme of public engagement and education activities and to champion positive land management and enhance the protection of birds of prey. We will work creatively to deliver face to face, digital and outreach activities focused on inspiring and enthusing people to champion birds of prey.

About the role

This is a really exciting opportunity for you to work with the partnership during the project development period. You will lead the project development work and assist in the writing of the Round 2 HLF bid for submission in May 2020. This is a 12 month role and the post holder will need to be based in the project area.

As a part of the role you will:

- Consult with local communities and visitors
- Recruit and train specialist volunteers
- Work with partners to create a well scoped out and planned HLF Round 2 submission
- Work with partners and consultants to produce a number of plans which are needed for the HLF Round 2 submission including an activity plan and communications plan
- Work with partners and consultants to undertake various scoping studies, including for citizen science and use of nest cameras
- deliver pilot activities and gather participant feedback

You will have great communication and organisational skills and the ability to produce a range of reports in a short time frame.

Who we are and what we do

The RSPB exists to give nature a home. We help our birds, other wildlife and natural places survive and thrive.

On our doorstep are woods and farmland, moors and marshes, cliffs and mountains. They are home to an astonishing array of precious but threatened wildlife. Every species is unique, but they are all connected to one another. And every one of them needs a home to survive.

Sadly, many of our best loved and most iconic species can't find a welcome home here any more. It's our job to change this. A country that's not home to skylarks and puffins, red squirrels and hedgehogs is not a country any of us want to live in.

To protect our threatened birds and other wildlife, we need to protect the places where they live. If we are taking care of nature, we are taking care of ourselves and future generations.

The RSPB in a nutshell

The Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB):

- Was formed in 1889 to counter the barbaric trade in bird plumes for women's hats
- Has since grown into a world-leading wildlife conservation organization and now speak out for all birds and wildlife, tackling the problems which threaten our environment
- Has over a million members, including more than 200,000 youth members
- Has more than 2,000 active staff members and almost 18,000 volunteers, who donate more than a million hours of their time – that's the equivalent of 600 full-time staff
- Has a NET income available for charitable purposes of £89.3 million
- Has more than 200 nature reserves covering 143,7800 hectares and home to 80% of our rarest or most threatened bird species
- Has a UK headquarters, three national offices and eight regional offices
- Has a network of over 150 local groups and more than 150 youth groups
- Has an impressive global reach, with active projects and capacity building programmes in 26 countries and 10 UK Overseas Territories
- Is the UK partner and leading player, in Birdlife International
- Has the largest charity mail order operation in the UK, and also has the UK's most successful charity credit card

Volunteers

Volunteers founded the RSPB 125 years ago and remain a vitally important part of the organization today; there are approximately nine volunteers for every paid member of staff.

Our volunteers bring a unique range of skills and qualities to the RSPB, help stretch our scarce resources and keep us in touch with grass roots.

Our Strategy, Mission and Cultural Values

Our Strategy

Our vision: a world richer in nature

Imagine this. Wild birds and other wildlife will no longer be declining. Nature is restored, enriching and sustaining the lives of people as a result. Such a world would guarantee that future generations have clean air and water, a stable climate, abundant and diverse wildlife, and a robust, diverse and sustainable economy.

Our long-term purpose: saving nature

We believe that:

- There is a moral imperative to save nature
- Nature is crucial for peoples quality of life and the planet's life support systems
- Birds are an integral part of the web of life
- We are well placed to stand up for birds and all nature
- The challenge is great, we must work with others to succeed
- We need growing popular support

Our Mission

By 2020...

Our work is both urgent and important and we need to act now to make a difference. The world's governments have committed to halting biodiversity loss by 2020 and we will challenge them, as well as businesses, civil society and ourselves, to take the steps necessary to reach this goal, and then go further.

Our Cultural Values

Our cultural values are the way we work with each other and partners:

Bold

We speak out honestly for what we believe in, aiming higher and pushing further for growth. We seek to provide innovative, fun and sociable ways for people to get involved

Focused

We identify where birds and wildlife are most under threat, then act decisively and with commitment to save them and deliver tangible results

Supportive

We support each other and our sector partners in order to flourish, and make sure our supporters receive reward and recognition for their contribution

Together

We work together for the biggest possible impact across the RSPB and with partners across the UK and globally

Childcare Vouchers

The Childcare Voucher Scheme is open to all employees who are parents or guardians and currently use childcare facilities. Equality and Diversity at the RSPB

The RSPB is part of a global network that incorporates a diversity of traditions and cultures, and which represents different inheritances, backgrounds, influences, perspectives and experiences. Everyone has the right to be treated with consideration and respect. The RSPB is committed to achieving a truly inclusive environment for all, by developing better working relationships that release the full potential, creativity and productivity of each individual, and an atmosphere where everyone can learn, work and live free from prejudice, discrimination, harassment and violence.

The RSPB aims to ensure that all staff, volunteers, partners, clients, contractors, members and the general public are treated fairly. Employment Checks

All offers of employment are made subject to the following criteria:

Proof of eligibility to work in the UK, Satisfactory Employment Health Check, Two references satisfactory to the RSPB and where required a Satisfactory Criminal Records Bureau Check.

Applications from candidates requiring a certificate of sponsorship under the UK points-based immigration system will not be considered if there are suitable candidates who do not require sponsorship. This is because employers need to demonstrate that they are unable to recruit a resident worker, before they can recruit a non-resident worker*.

The resident worker rule does not prevent applicants requiring sponsorship from applying for our vacancies, but such applications should be made on the understanding that they can only be considered subject to the restrictions above.

For further information, please visit the Home Office UK Border Agency website.

This rule does not apply to those applying for roles that require a bachelor, postgraduate degree or postgraduate certificate in education qualification. It is necessary for the qualification to be an essential requirement for the role and the applicant to prove that they possess such a qualification (or have completed a minimum of 12 months study in the UK towards a UK PhD), which is recognised in the UK.*
